ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

The work of testing the sight and hearing of school children as provided by law, has been completed in Lyndonville. Children under seven years of age were not examined. Of the 175 pupils tested, 74 were found to be defective in sight and about a dozen cases of defective hearing were discovered.

Contributions are still being received by Mrs. E. Mead Wemy of Montpelier for the fund the D. C. T. U. is raising for benefit of the battleship Vermont. Up to date $500 have been subscribed. The money will be devoted toward supplying the ship with a library and furnishing the men with comfort bags. These bags will contain a copy of the new testament, a hymn book, material necessary for darning and mending wearing apparel, court plaster, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Willard, of Pittsford, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding Sunday. They are 85 and 83 years old respectively. There is no remembrance of a similar experience in Pittsford. Mr. Willard's professional life of sixty-four years is said to exceed that of any other living member of the Vermont bar. Owing to Mr. Willard's feeble health no public reception was held, but immediate friends paid their tribute of respect to the elderly couple.

James C. Colgate, the New York millionaire broker, has just added to the stock of cattle on his stock farm at Bennington, a full blooded Jersey bull from "Dreamworld," the stock farm of Thomas W. Lawson. He was sired by "Flying Fox" the champion Jersey bull of the country, for which Mr. Lawson paid a small fortune. Mr. Colgate has on his farm some sixty blooded cows, most of them of the Jersey breed. There are also on the farm 200 registered sheep, mostly of the Dorset breed, which are noted for their mutton.

A stabbing affray took place at Saxtons River Monday night, Charles Parker's face being badly gashed. Harry Jeffrey and wife and Charles Parker were drinking at the former's home at Saxtons River. Parker and Mrs. Jeffrey went to Bellows Falls to get another supply of liquor and on their return, Jeffrey, forgetting that he had sent them became enraged at seeing them together and with a big knife made a dash for his wife. Parker, however, stepping be-

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the mind of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance are doomed to fade. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newcomb's Herpidea absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpidea Co., Detroit, Mich.

Enclosed find check for $30.65 to cover invoice of March 9, 1904."
